Step 2. Select the “Withdraw Funds” button within the Holding Overview page

The screenshot displays the Goldmoney 'Holding Overview' page. The top navigation bar includes the Goldmoney logo, a help icon, and user profile icons. The main header shows 'Holding Overview' with sub-tabs for 'BALANCES', 'TRANSACTIONS', and 'STATEMENTS'. A notification banner at the top right indicates '1 Unread Message'.

The 'Precious Metals' section features a table with columns for METAL, VAULT, GRAMS, OUNCES, and USD EQUIVALENT. It includes 'SELL METAL' and 'BUY METAL' buttons. The table lists six holdings of Silver and Gold from various vaults.

The 'Currency Funds' section includes a 'WITHDRAW FUNDS' button and an 'ADD FUNDS' button. It contains a table with columns for CURRENCY, AMOUNT, UNRESERVED, FX RATE, and USD EQUIVALENT, showing a single entry for USD.

On the right side, there is a 'Market Summary' sidebar with tabs for METALS, CRYPTO, and FX. It displays a table of metal prices (Gold, Silver, Platinum, Palladium) with 24-hour price changes and sell/buy prices. Below this is a 'Latest Insights' section with three articles: 'Post-tariff considerations', 'In praise of Hayek's masterwork', and 'Cyber wars and all that'.

Step 3. Select Destination (the account in which the funds are to be transferred)

The screenshot displays the Goldmoney website's 'Withdraw Funds' page. The top navigation bar includes the Goldmoney logo, a help icon, a message icon with '1 MESSAGE', and a profile icon. Below the navigation bar, there is a 'Manage Funds' menu and two buttons: 'ADD FUNDS' and 'WITHDRAW FUNDS'. The main content area is titled 'Withdraw Funds' and contains a sub-header 'SELECT BANK ACCOUNT'. A blue information box states: 'Please note that you may only withdraw funds from your Holding that are the proceeds of a previous sale.' Below this, a form shows a selected bank account with a US flag, 'USD', a masked account number 'xxxxxx3014', and the label 'Bank Transfer'. A 'NEXT STEP' button is visible at the bottom right of the form. On the right side, a 'CURRENT PROGRESS' section shows a vertical list of steps: 'SELECT DESTINATION' (active), 'ENTER AMOUNT', 'REVIEW & ENTER PIN', and 'COMPLETE'. Below this, a 'DO YOU NEED HELP?' section lists two links: 'How long does a withdrawal take to process?' and 'I want to contact Goldmoney'. The footer contains copyright information and links for 'PRIVACY POLICY', 'CLIENT AGREEMENT', and 'DISCLAIMER'.
